

ROGUE VALLEY ACES! Topping the field in the Saturday A/B Open Pairs were Joanne Merry and John Jefferson of Davis, Calif., with a very nice 60.51 per cent game. They got back into the game of duplicate after a more than two-decade layoff. Some comeback!

Like to own a bridge book seller business?

PDI has told the District 20 board of directors that it is getting out of the business after 17 years of serving District 19 and 20 as a vendor of bridge books and supplies at tournaments.

If someone is interested in getting into the business, said tournament manager Marilyn Vilhauer, contact the board for more information.

Board names Marie Ashton new tournament manager

Marie Ashton, a familiar name in District 20 bridge circles, has been chosen by the board to be the new tournament manager, replacing the retiring Marilyn Vilhauer.

Ashton, District 20 treasurer, will train under Vilhauer at the Seaside regional this fall.
