Mitchell and Joyce Willcox, left, teamed with Eileen Milligan and Mary Alice Seville, all of Corvallis, to win bracket 2 in the Welcome to Medford Knockout Teams event. Milligan and Seville also won the Wednesday afternoon side pairs for east/west with a sizzling 71.50 per cent game.

Richard Brumund, above, of Phoenix, Ore., and his partner Herm Yates of Ashland won first place in "C" in their sections, both morning and afternoon, of the Wednesday Stratified Open Pairs.

Phil and Carolyn Benner of Eldorado Hills, Calif., won top honors in the Wednesday Stratified Open Pairs with a 61.46 per cent game and a payoff of 9.45 points.

Lael Cooksley and Jan Hart of Redmond, Ore., won first north/south with a 62.20 per cent effort in the Tuesday afternoon 299er pairs.

Ruth Porterfield of Dorris, Calif., and Shirley Horton of Klamath Falls had a strong 58.17 percent game as east/west in the afternoon section of the Wednesday Stratified Open Pairs, netting them second in A and first in B and C.

Do you have Daily Bulletin items?

If you'd like to submit something for the Daily Bulletin, there is a box at the hospitality table where you can drop your items. We're interested in interesting or funny anecdotes from the day, an amazing play by defense or declarer (be sure to include details and names), or anything else you think is worthy of publication.

Expert commentary is also welcome. You can also submit items to editor Jim Flint at his email address: pubathome@yahoo.com. Or contact him at the tournament.
