Meet your DIC, Matt Smith

Matt Smith, director in charge for the Medford Regional, perhaps was destined to have a career in bridge. He comes from a family tradition steeped in the game.

His late parents were both Life Masters and his six siblings all played duplicate bridge. His brother Duncan is a Grand Life Master and his wife Vicky is a Bronze Life Master.

Smith, 55, started playing bridge in 1971 at his father's club. He has been a certified club director since 1973 and a tournament director since 1983, full-time since 1995.

He is a resident of Victoria, B.C., and has lived on Vancouver Island his entire life.

Players reminded about cell phones, perfumes

Players are reminded to turn off cell phones and any other electronic devices at all times in the playing area. Phones should be off and not just in standby or vibrate mode.

Players also are asked to please refrain from using perfume or heavily scented lotions in deference to players with allergies.
