The name Seaside is derived from Seaside House, a historic summer resort built in the 1870s by railroad magnate Ben Holladay (October 14, 1819–July 8, 1887). This American transportation businessman was responsible for creating the Overland Stage to California during the 1849 California Gold Rush. He is known as the "Stagecoach King," owning the Pony Express besides creating a stagecoach empire. He established the Overland Stage Route along the Overland Trail to avoid confrontations with American Indians on the northern Oregon Trail and Pony Express routes. His transportation empire later included steamships and railroads in Oregon. Holladay lost most of his fortune in the stock market collapse on September 18, 1873.

NEXT YEAR'S SEASIDE REGIONAL DATES!

September 30 - October 6, 2013

♥ In my opinion, the current preoccupation with conventions and systems is unhealthy. Players focus on learning a system and neglect the development of vital, basic skills such as hand evaluation, visualization, planning the auction and maintaining discipline.

Kudos to a new Life Master! Carolyn Roe, from Bellvue, Washington, won her points playing with Linda Armstrong, Dede Webber, and Joyce Williamsen in Bracket 4 or the Indian Summer Knockouts. And Linda Hann, from Roseburg, Oregon, won gold in Bracket 3 of those knockouts as well, and just needs less than 7 silver points to achieve her Life Master rank.

Harvey Bush, from Klamath Falls, Oregon, is a new Gold Life Master, placing 3/4 in the Indian Summer Kos with Albert Wilson, Suzanne Cook, and James Smith. It's been a great Indian Summer indeed, as Gerry Marshall, from Las Varas, Mexico, achieved the fine rank of Platinum Life Master, winning Bracket 1 playing with Daniel Korbel, Jonathan Steinberg, and Hendrik Sharples.

Congratulations one and all!!!

How to Be a Good Partner

Marty Bergen, The Bridge Bulletin, January 1984

1. Remember that this is only a card game. Have a good time and make sure partner does too.
2. Don't give lessons (unless you are being paid to do so).
3. Like partner and root for him/her 100 percent. Remember you and partner are on the same side... and [partner] wants to win as much as you do. It's OK to be nice to a partner you happen to live with.
4. When you choose to play bridge with someone, it is unfair to get upset when he/she doesn't play any better than usual.
5. Never say anything to partner unless you would want him/her to say it to you. ... Never "result" (criticize partner for a normal action that didn't work this time).
6. If you feel the urge to be nasty, sarcastic, or critical, excuse yourself and take a walk.
7. When you have time between hands, try to discuss topics other than bridge. Never discuss a hand just played with your partner except to clear up a misunderstanding in bidding or defense.
8. Think twice before verbally analyzing a hand (you may be wrong). Never assume partner made a mistake until the hand is over and you have time to think it through.
9. When asking another player about a disaster, ask about your hand, not partner's. Don't ever criticize or embarrass partner in front of others. Never side with an opponent against your partner.
10. If you are too good for a partner, or don't enjoy playing with him/her, choose someone else next time rather than being a martyr (but don't dump a partner unless you're sure).
