Book Review: Bridge on a Shoestring

By Michael Schoenborn

Michael Schoenborn is a many-time Canadian champion and just this past year once again won the Canadian Senior Team Championships. He has written a very fun retrospective of his bridge career featuring excellent hands played by him and his many partners. The book is reminiscent of Mollo and Bird in the quality of the deals as well as humorous writing and interesting characters. It features many fun (and funny!) stories about early bidding experiments including short-suit pre-empt and a forcing pass system where a pass in 1st and 2nd seat showed "an unbalanced hand with 13 to 16 HCP". He also thoughtfully discusses some good play and defense problems.

Overall, this is a very enjoyable read.
